Dear Lucas

Thank you for meeting with me on Tuesday. It was helpful to discuss how your work is contributing to the AI public policy landscape.

Please keep this letter as a record of my support for the research that you and your colleagues have undertaken on strategies to mitigate AI's societal and economic risks for public benefit. I would encourage others to similarly support you in this endeavour. In my view, your work on token taxes and safeguards for public sector AI systems in particular merits consideration for further funding.

Thank you once again for your work in this area and please do write back if I can provide you with further support.

Yours sincerely,
